Medical Council Statutory Examination for Medical Practitioners held on 19th September 2011

22nd September 2011

To the President Medical Council

During Council Meeting No 87, dated Wednesday 25th May 2011, the Medical Council appointed Mr Charles Messina to act as the Examination Coordinator. Mr Messina held various meetings with the examiners in order set up the examinations and the schedules.

In the meantime, the Registrar informed all pending applications, which amounting to 45 candidates, to confirm attendance by 15th June 2011. Only 8 applicants replied by the date stipulated, however, only 5 applicants were able to sit for the examination. As per LN330/2006 applicants paid the amount of € 1170.

The Medical Practitioners Examination was held on Monday 19th September 2011, at the Medical School, Mater Dei Hospital.

The examination was conducted in the form of an interview (Viva Voce) in English. All Candidates were examined in the following subjects which were scheduled in the following grouping:

Medicine/Paediatrics
Surgery/Obstetrics and Gynaecology
Pathology/Family Medicine
Psychiatry/Public Health

All subjects were failing, that is, one must obtain a pass-mark in all the subjects.
